

Discover a web-based solution to your daily real estate needs

Would you like to spend more strategic time on your property portfolio and unburden yourself from your day-to-day concerns?

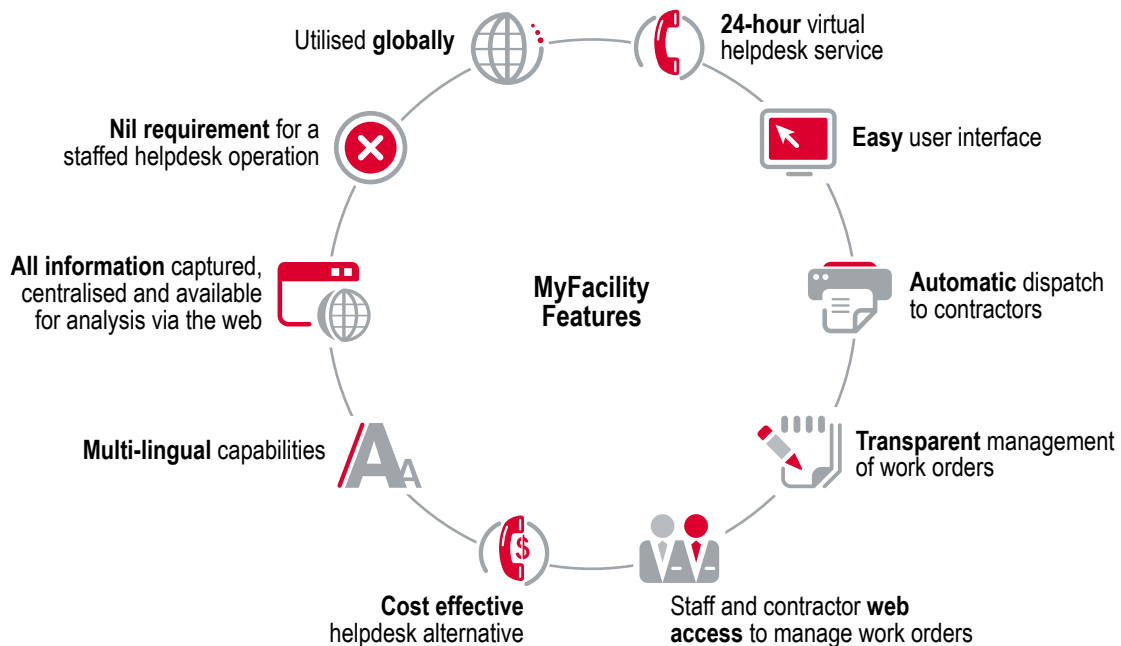

Introducing MyFacility, the online request tool developed by Jones Lang LaSalle. This tool offers a centralised system which logs, tracks, updates and closes requests. MyFacility allows you to manage a comprehensive suite of services across all types of property, including repairs and maintenance, relocations, purchasing, security, incident reporting and workplace services.

Many of our valued clients across Asia Pacific and globally are creating more strategic time by managing their property requests online directly through MyFacility.

Unique features that deliver real benefits to you

MyFacility is considered the benchmark online real estate request tool in the market place. Features include:

- Extremely user friendly interface with little or no training required for users
- Auto dispatch of requests to recipients/contractors
- Scalability and flexibility of service delivery and scope
- Centralised data capture
- 100% follow up via automated email notification
- 100% work order close out by recipients/contractors
- Virtual helpdesk solution – no additional helpdesk or telephony costs
- Minimal system requirements – requestor and recipient internet access only
